

Martha Washington NEW YORK

ADVANTAGES

The 450 bedrooms are for the exclusive use of women guests; the two lower floors containing a magnificent restaurant with orchestral music evenings and the grand lobby and second floor with numerous private pariors are for both men and women.

The service is of that even, careful kind; nearly all the employes are women; the telephone and paging system is developed to science; the chamber maids are accustomed to assisting guests in their rooms and all the little things necessary to the comfort of a woman traveler can be secured and are offered graciously and at all hours.

To the woman seeking pro-feesional, social or business proetigs a residence at the Mar-tha Washington is a real asset.

A bright, cheerful room costs $1.50 per day and more for a larger room or one with bath. Meals are served both Table d'Hote and a la Carte. An illustrated booklet sets forth other interesting facts and will be sent free.

tional arguments that favored the right of suffrage to women. He said that he favored the right of suffrage to women. He said the matter to become law, would have to be passed by the house, and two years hence passed by the senate and house by a two-thirds vote, before submitted to the people for final action. Because some women did not want to vote, was no reason why all should be disfranchised. The recent vote in Chicago showed that the votees of women was beneficial to the republican party. He referred to the party success by reason of woman suffrage in states where it has been in vogue. There are twelve "Major" William Anderson rounded out his seventy-seventh year this week; he doesn't look it and he says he doesn't feel it.
